Bridge to University and Professional Success Class Descriptions

ESLB B000 Individualized English Language Study Plan

For students who want to work one-to-one with an instructor focusing on their chosen areas of English language study. Students are matched with an instructor to develop a 14-week Individualized English Language Study Plan to practice and improve grammar, reading, writing, conversation, pronunciation, preparation for TOEFL and other exams, job-seeking skills, English for specific purposes (such as medicine, science and technology, engineering, or business) or to practice conversation skills. All study plans, including assignment of the instructor, are approved by the program director. NOTE: This class meets either one (1) or (2) hours per week depending on which section the student enrolled.

ESLB B001 Transitions 10: Writing, Research, and Presentations

For students who have achieved an advanced level of English fluency and want to further develop their academic and professional writing, research techniques, presentations, and intercultural awareness for successful participation in American or global academic or professional environments. NOTE: This class meets five (5) hours per week.

Prerequisite: Students must test at an Advanced Level in writing or have successfully completed ESLC C014 Community English as a Second Language: Level 4 or higher.

ESLB B002 Transitions 11: Advanced Pronunciation, Interviewing, & Presentation Skills

For students who have achieved an advanced level of English fluency but want to further develop their oral communication skills for greater success in an academic or professional environment. Students learn accent modification (advanced level pronunciation techniques), make effective presentations, and interview professionals in the community to gain their advice for how to make successful connections for academic and professional career opportunities. Note: This class meets five (5) hours per week.

Prerequisite: Students must test at an Advanced Level in oral and written skills or have successfully completed ESLC C014 Community English as a Second Language: Level 4 or higher.

Intensive English as a Second Language Class Descriptions

Intensive Core Classes:

Beginning Level:

ESLI I001 Basic Intensive Listening and Speaking

For students who want to develop the use and comprehension of basic level vocabulary, pronunciation, and language structure of spoken English. Students who have never studied English before should also enroll in Specialized Tutoring in order to learn basic greetings, alphabet, numbers, pronouns, and basic English structure. NOTE: This class meets seven and one-half (7.5) hours per week.
